members of the President's kitchen cabinet were then introduced. They were preceded by a delegation of the Rough Riders, and followed by a delegation of what the President de-scribed as the "Rough Writers." Other representatives of the United States Government took part in the game. They were the members of the kitchen cabinet.

Much enthusiasm was created by the introduction of the following alleged program of performances by members of the club:

That can lead the Democratic band.

CHORUS, Bryan, he's the man for me, steady as
the shining sun,
In a style and manner free; ready any time to run;
Bryan, he's the man for me; twice a candidate was he;
No one else is in it for a minute; Billy Bryan is the man.

Bryan said, "Adieu! I think a lot of Sadness touched the Rooseveltian mind;
